LABORATORY SERVICES

ANALYTICS FOR PHARMA PACKAGING

Nipro Pharma Packaging is a vertically integrated company that draws upon decades of experience to create an exceptional knowledge base. In addition to producing high-quality primary packaging, Nipro translates this expertise into Nipro Laboratory Services: analytical laboratory services that guide pharmaceutical companies in finding suitable packaging solutions for new drugs and improvements in the packaging quality of existing drugs.

When choosing for Nipro Laboratory Services, you will work closely with a service partner who has a comprehensive understanding and exceptional know-how of analytical processes, state of the art analytical equipment, and wide-ranging solutions to industry problems.
